

Via Claudia Augusta

From Augsburg to Bolzano in 9 days

About 2000 years ago the adopted son of emperor Augustus, General Drusus realized over his military career the significance of well maintained and quickly passable transport routes from the northern Roman provinces to the Mediterranean. For that reason it was more than necessary to build a pass road to link the northern and southern parts of the empire divided by the Alps. The Via Claudia Augusta, completed within 60 years, is an exemplary sample of Roman construction and a masterpiece of antique engineering. With this road, the Romans had built the first proper mountain road across the Fern Pass and the Reschen Pass.

Nowadays the Via Claudia Augusta enables cyclists to experience a unique and stunning crossing of the Alps and to get to know the most beautiful sides of the former Roman domain. And thanks to organized transfers across the two passes you can do so without too much effort.

The scenic contrasts along the route are almost unsurpassable: South of Augsburg you pedal along the flat Lechfeld towards the massive Alpine range.

You cross impressive Tyrolean mountain passes and follow the flow of River Adige to the South Tyrol's capital of Bolzano – the portal to the Mediterranean.

Let's cross the Alps in the footsteps of the Romans!

Programme

Day 1: Individual Journey to Augsburg

Visit of the Roman provincial capital "Augusta Vindelicorum".

Day 2: Augsburg – Landsberg (about 46 kilometres)

The name of Augsburg derives from the Roman name of the town "Augusta Vindelicorum", which was founded in 15 B.C. under the rule of Emperor Augustus. Augsburg's popularity however, was established with its role as a Fugger town. Therefore, a visit of the Fuggerei, which is the world's oldest project for social housing still in use today, is almost a must.

Day 3: Landsberg - Schongau (about 42 kilometers)

Schongau features a picturesque old town and almost completely preserved town wall.

Day 4: Schongau – Füssen/Schwangau (about 40 kilometres)

Having left the old town of Schongau the cycling path along River Lech takes you into the Tyrol. Before heading over the border from Germany to Austria the beautiful fairytale-like Neuschwanstein castle awaits you.

Day 5: Füssen - Imst (about 35 kilometres with the bike)

Today the tour takes us from Füssen to Reutte. From there our transfer brings you across Fern Pass in a comfortable way. From Fernstein castle you cycle past Nassereith and through the picturesque Gurgltal Valley to Imst. A "beery" adventure awaits you at the microbrewery at Starkenberg castle.

Day 6: Imst – Burgeis/Mals (about 45 kilometres by bike)

Fortified by a hearty breakfast you'll ride your bike from Imst to Landeck.

From there we'll take you to Nauders. Soon afterwards you cross the border to Italy at Reschen pass and with it the main Alpine ridge. You cycle downwards towards Mals past Reschenstausee reservoir with the sunken church tower of Altgraun, one of the most famous photo motifs of Italy. Enjoy the first evening on South Tyrolean soil and enjoy strolling through the old alleyways of the town.

Day 7: Mals/Burgeis – Merano (about 60 kilometers)

Today we cross the entire Vinschgau. The route leads from an altitude of more than 1,000m down to the town of the Merano that is located at an altitude of 350m. Most of the route follows the course of River Adige. From your starting place this pleasant cycling stretch leads down to the smallest town of the Alps, the town of Glurns. Past the marble town of Laas you get to Naturns and eventually – past the impressive Kastellbell castle – to the spa town of Merano. . Enjoy an evening walk through town along the “Passer” promenade surrounded by subtropical flora.

Day 8: Merano – Bolzano (about 40 kilometres)

The final stage takes you from Merano to Bolzano through the Adige Valley. There are a number of amazing sites along the way: Niederlana's famous Schnatterbeckaltar, the largest Gothic wing altar in the Alpine area, the highest church tower of South Tyrol in Terlan and a great number of fortresses and ruins on both valley slopes. Besides its cultural richness the region offers all sorts of culinary delights: fresh asparagus in Terlan, tasty chestnuts in Nals and excellent regional wines. Having arrived in Bolzano you can enjoy the wonderful southern flair in the pedestrian zone to the full.
